

CLEVELAND TOUCHDOWN CLUB CHARITIES MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIPS APPLICATION

Cleveland Touchdown Club Charities is pleased to begin accepting applications for this year's CTCC Memorial Scholarships. This year we will be granting four scholarships in honor of Morrie Kono, John Peyton, Billy Reynolds and Dick Zunt.

- Morrie Kono started with the Cleveland Browns in 1946; he was the team's equipment manager from 1948 to 1974, before moving into the role of a consultant until 1979. Known for his stories and ability to keep the locker room loose, he was an integral part of the day to day operations of the team for over 30 years.
- In high school, John Peyton did not play any team sports; however, he demonstrated his spirit and desire to help by acting as the manager of many of his high school's teams. Peyton was a two-time past President of CTCC and passed away in 2000.
- Billy Reynolds was a former President of CTCC, who made the club an active civic sports organization in the Greater Cleveland area and who dedicated his life to youth and athletics. A halfback for the Cleveland Browns from 1953 – 1957, he made Cleveland his home after retirement until his passing in 2002.
- Dick Zunt was actively involved with CTCC. He was a long-time reporter for the Plain Dealer for over 43 years covering the local high school sports community. He passed away in 2010.

The applicant must be a graduating high school senior and show need and merit to be considered for a scholarship. In addition, the applicant must have participated in his or her high school athletic team programs in a non-athletic manner (i.e. team manager, statistician, photographer/videographer, sports writer, team booster, etc.).
